About Hong Kong Sports Stars Awards (HKSSA)

The Hong Kong Sports Stars Awards was first organized by a commercial corporation in 1986 with only one award category. The commercial corporation informed the Federation that it would no longer organize the event in 2000. To continue its legacy and to give recognition to Hong Kong athletes who had attained remarkable achievement, the Federation took over the role with financial support from Leisure and Cultural Services Department. Three awards categories, namely “Hong Kong Sports Stars Awards”, “Hong Kong Junior Sports Stars Awards” and “Hong Kong Sports Team for the Year Award” were the original Awards in 2000. The Awards was further expanded to the present scale with six awards categories since 2004. At the same year, the number of awardees for “Hong Kong Sports Stars Awards” was increased from six to eight athletes and the public was invited to cast their votes for their favourite athletes since then. The prestigious “Best of the Best Sports Stars Award” was presented to the awardee with the highest votes among the eight awardees of the “Hong Kong Sports Stars Awards” starting from 2006.

For the Samsung 2014 HKSSA, 120 nominations were received from 47 National Sports Associations (NSAs), with 93 athletes competing for “individual awards”, 9 teams for “team only awards” and 18 teams for “team events awards”. 23 awards were shared among 13 NSAs. This year, Samsung Electronics H.K. Company, Limited continues to be the Title Sponsor of the Samsung 2015 HKSSA for the third consecutive years.
